Computer Account Application
Dept. of Statistics
Texas A&M University

[ Only use for Statistics staff, faculty, post-doc’s and students! ]

To create an account on the Department of Statistics computer system, fill out this application, sign it, and take it to a person authorized to approve account creation. If you do not know who that might be, drop it off for signature in the main office (Blocker 447).

Date:

First and last name:

Non-Departmental Email:

[Optional] Desired account name:

(Note: Account names are suggestions only. They must not be more than 10 characters or contain any numbers or symbols. In general they should be first initial+last name; or alternatively: first name; last name or; nickname or initials).

[Optional] Account expiration date:

(Note: Unless specified, all accounts will expire on September 30. If an expiration date is specified, it must be for a date before September 30. Unless renewed, accounts may be closed and deleted without warning after the expiration date.)

Classification: Staff / Faculty / Post-Doc / Student

________________________________________________________________________
Account holder signature:

________________________________________________________________________
Name Signature Date

By signing above you acknowledge that you will abide by the computer policies that govern the use of computers in the Dept. of Statistics at Texas A&M University. You can find the policies here: http://www.stat.tamu.edu/policy.

________________________________________________________________________
Authorizing signature for account creation:

________________________________________________________________________
Name Signature Date